The Incredibly Eerie Circumstances Surrounding Matthew Perry's Death

Matthew Perry's untimely death was preceded by a series of cryptic Instagram posts that appeared to be predicting the time and the place of death. Furthermore, the timing and the circumstances surrounding his death make things even more suspicious. Here's a look at this sad and bizarre case.

Most of us knew Matthew Perry from Friends – a sitcom that remains highly popular to this day. As the show played in a constant loop around the world since the 1990s, Perry and his co-stars have been enjoying a form of permanent youth where they never seemed to age on our screens. Maybe for this reason, the news of Perry's death at the age of 54 was particularly upsetting.

When such events happen, I usually wait a few days before writing about them, hoping that new information will answer some questions and dispel some dark theories. However, over a week after Perry's death, no questions were answered and things just got weirder. And, despite the entire "what the hell just happened" aspect of this death, mass media's coverage remained extremely vague while stubbornly focusing on two words: Drug addiction.

In other words, Perry's death follows the same pattern as other celebrity deaths that were described in past articles. Here's a look at the circumstances surrounding his death.

What Really Happened?

On October 28th, after spending most of the day playing pickleball, Mathew Perry was found dead in a hot tub at his home in Los Angeles. Authorities quickly determined that no illegal drugs were found on the premises and that no foul play was suspected. Most news reports stated that he died from "apparent drowning".

Over a week after the discovery of Perry's body, the actual cause of death remains a mystery.

Matthew Perry's death investigation continues to raise more questions than answers six days after his death, according to a former medical examiner.

The Los Angeles County Medical Examiner-Coroner on Sunday told Fox News Digital, "An autopsy was completed today, and toxicology results are pending."

Following reports that a toxicology screening revealed fentanyl and meth were not found in his system at the time of his death, Dr. Michael Baden, former chief medical examiner of New York City, forensic pathologist and Fox News contributor wondered why a cause of death had not yet been released.

"If Matthew Perry had died of a heart attack, that would be immediately apparent, and they would have said so," Baden exclusively told Fox News Digital.

In his new interview with Fox News Digital, Baden said, "The two important substances to refer to is the Vicodin, which is an opioid narcotic, and alcohol, which are the two things that he, according to his biography, got into the most trouble about," Baden said. "We have to see what happens with the further release of the toxicology, because after six days now, they know if there was any natural cause of death. If he had a heart away. And, that would be something they would have released because that would be kind to the family without delving into the drugs that he had previously had trouble with.”

– Fox News, Matthew Perry toxicology reports provide insight into how star may have died: former medical examiner

Like other similar cases, the actual cause of death might take weeks to be revealed and, even then, it might remain extremely vague. And, while mass media has been talking about drugs and hinting at a possible suicide, people close to him say that he was sober and not suicidal. I mean, who plays pickleball before committing suicide?

Perry was pictured on a lunch date with a Venezuelan model named Athenna Crosby one day before his death.

In an Instagram post, Athenna Crosby wrote:

“I want to emphasize that Matthew was in extremely good spirits and talked to me enthusiastically about the things he had coming up in his life. He was so happy and vibrant.”

That doesn't sound like someone who was about to commit suicide. She also added that he was “100% sober.” Perry himself stated that he has been sober since 2021.

occult elite – right during the most “sacrificial” time of the year?

If that sounds crazy to you, I agree. It is completely crazy. But we live in a crazy world and everything about this death points directly towards this craziness. Here are some eerie facts about this sad event.

Eerie Facts

First eerie fact: Perry is yet another celebrity who was found dead in a bathtub. Whitney Houston (who died in mysterious circumstances) was found in a bathtub. Her daughter Bobbi (who died in VERY mysterious circumstances) was also found in a bathtub.

Almost exactly one year ago, another celebrity was found dead in a bathtub: Aaron Carter. Once again, his death was highly suspicious, and, like Perry, the media solely focused on his addictions while completely ignoring other bizarre facts (his own mother believes he was murdered).

Another similarity between the deaths of Perry and Carter: They both occurred around Samhain (the occult holiday that takes place on Halloween) which happens to be the most “sacrificial” time of the year. For centuries, ancient cultures have been practicing human sacrifices during this spiritually potent period.

Here's an excerpt from my article about Aaron Carter. It 100% applies today.

Carter died on November 5th, 2022. Do you recall what happened exactly one year prior, on November 5th, 2021? Astroworld – the highly demonic concert where 10 people died as Travis Scott carried on performing. As explained in my article about Astroworld, the week of Samhain (Halloween) is, in occult circles, the most potent time for blood sacrifices. Every year, high-profile yet unexplained deaths occur during that time.

Perry died around Samhain. Even worse, he died exactly during a full moon which is said to multiply the magical potency of a sacrifice. While these facts might sound like coincidences, they've all been alluded to in Perry's final Instagram posts. You can't make this up.

Final Instagram Posts

After months of inactivity on Instagram, Perry (or whoever handles his account) posted a series of cryptic pictures that appear to be predicting the time and place of his death.

mitchpaul87 No conspiracy. To many people wearing aluminum foil hats in here. Matty's house was being renovated since he bought it, had the Batman logo light setup in his pool, and this inside shot looks like he finished up his theatre room and added the red Batman logo there too, just showing it off.

On October 17th, Perry posted a TV screen playing the film The Batman with the caption “No need to worry, I've got the streets tonight”.

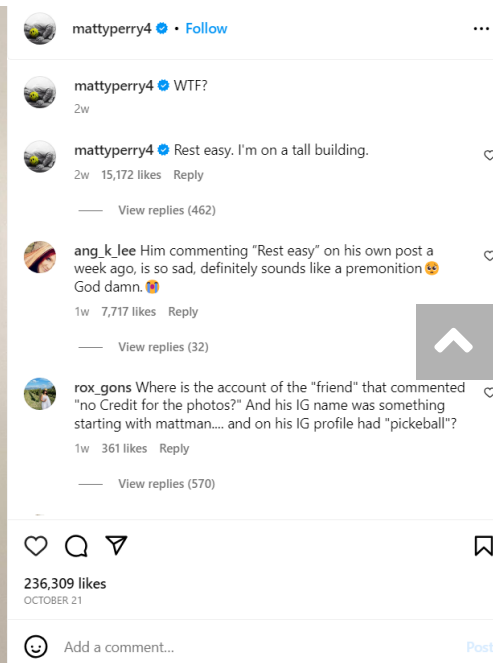

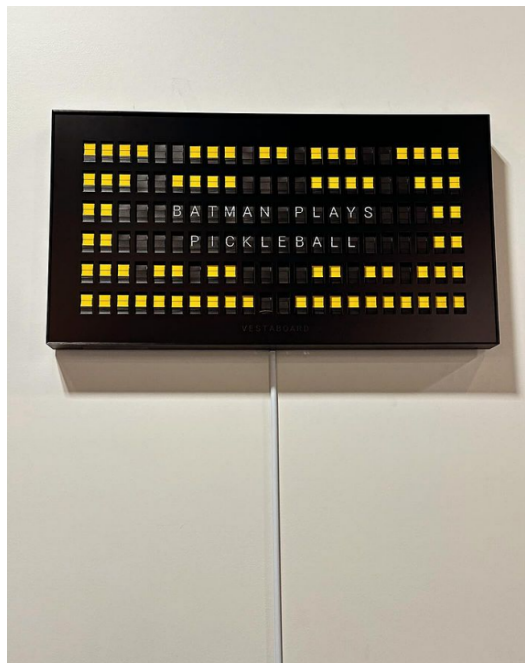

Several of his last posts bizarrely refer to Batman (or Mattman). Some believe that Perry was sending out “bat signals” (which indicate that someone is in distress). One thing is for sure, Perry was clearly fascinated by Batman.

Two days later, Perry posted another "bat signal".

Two days later, Perry posted this very bizarre picture that said "Batman plays pickleball". As stated above, Perry died shortly after playing pickleball. His first caption was "WTF". Later he posted a comment saying "Rest easy. I'm on a tall building". One of the most liked comments mentions that the words "Rest easy" ended up being premonitory.

somebody_1999_1 1. Batman logo projected on the ceiling = help me (like the movie/cartoon where people called for help by projecting the bat sign on the sky)
2. Batman logo = help me (again)
3. Pickleball = something will happen the day I play pickleball
4. Cranberries = I will commit suicide by drowning myself like The Cranberries' lead singer
5. Pumpkin = it will happen at Halloween
6. Moon = it will happen on the 28th of October (full moon)
7. The tub = where I will commit suicide

The next day, Perry posted a video of three cranberries with the caption "This is what I've had to eat today. I'm Mattman."

People were quick to point out that the post above might be a reference to Dolores O'Riordan, the lead singer of the Cranberries. In 2018, she was found dead in a bathtub in bizarre circumstances. You truly can't make this up.

On the same day, Perry posted a Halloween pumpkin emitting a "bat signal" with the caption "Do you know what I mean?"

The Incredibly Eerie Circumstances Surrounding Matthew Perry's Death

Again, on October 22nd, Perry posted this picture of the moon with the caption: "Do you understand what I'm trying to tell you? I'm Mattman".

Evidently, Perry (or whoever handled his account) was trying to say something with these three cryptic pictures posted the same day. Maybe the message was: Around Halloween and during the full moon, in a matter similar to the lead singer of The Cranberries.

And maybe Perry didn't post any of this. Maybe his handlers posted these pictures as part of a mega-ritual meant to shock and upset the entire world at this highly potent time of the year.

The next day Perry posted a final pic – one that takes the strangeness to another level.

In his very last post, Perry sits in the jacuzzi in which he'll die a few days later with the caption "Oh, so warm water swirling around you makes you feel good? I'm Mattman." Also, the picture was purposely framed to capture the moon.

Five days after this last pic, Perry was found dead in this very tub. And it was right during the full moon.

October 28, 2023

In October, this phenomenon will also be called the Full Hunter's Moon, it will pass on Saturday, October 28, 2023 at 4:24 p.m. EDT or 9:24 p.m. UTC. The October Full Moon will be the full moon in Taurus. Oct 28, 2023

How many coincidences need to happen before they stop being coincidences?

In Conclusion

The least one can say is that there's something off about Matthew Perry's death. And, when one knows a bit about the modus operandi of the occult elite, things get very suspicious.

First, it appears that "dead in a bathtub" is becoming a calling card of the occult elite. Second, if one wanted to carry a ritual sacrifice, the timing of Matthew Perry's death could not have been more perfect. The elite loves to carry out "mega-rituals" (highly mediatized sacrifices that cause shock and sorrow on a global scale) around this time of year because it is when the veil between the material and the spirit worlds is the thinnest.

While these facts might seem easy to dismiss, all of them were alluded to in Perry's which he'll be found dead.

Some believe that these clues were left by Perry as he was planning his suicide. But maybe other people were planning his "suicide" ... the same people who have been "suiciding" celebrities for decades.

You completely missed the most likely cause.....cardiac arrest caused the the Covid jabs, of which he was fanatical about promoting and taking. That would explain the coroner not coming out with the obvious causes (fentanyl, opioids, heart attack or stroke. If the toxicology tests come back clean, there is no other explanation other than the DeathVax took out another celebrity to go along with 14 million other people killed around the world by this BIOWEAPON that has ZERO efficacy for "Wuhan Flu" prevention nor disease transmission.

Oh hello! I also posted above comparing it to the weird, unexplained death of Bob Saget, which I think had something to do with the jab as well. Nice conjecture. And then we can probably also posit that the jabs are a sort of mass sacrifice, given that they come from the same evil cabal.

He may have pushed the jabs as part of his role but it's doubtful he got any real mRNA injection.

needles for Biden with the caps still on, fake injections where nothing was dispensed, ect....The jabs are for the sheep, not the elite and their slaves. They may use their assets in Entertainment to push the jab and promote it, but they are not taking it.

This may be one time where they don't mind the sheep going with that. Yeah, the vaccine kills, but what if it wasn't the vaccine this time?

If we mention Covid/Corona, I say, we must also mention 5G, 4G, 3G, WiFi. Suddenly dropping dead started years before the global mentioning of Covid/Corona. Including under 20yo's on schoolyards and playgrounds!

Remember.

Considering the fact that the photo of Perry in his hot tub is purple in color and the berries are red, red for sacrifice, is immeasurably eerie and telling.
