God and Reverse Speech-

God's truth is everywhere, even in our own speech commenting on what we are saying in our forward consciousness. So, it's a bit silly in my opinion to lament that God has abandoned us when we have not learned to see God and speak the language God embedded within our own consciousness to help guide us that is contained within every word we speak.

God made our forward consciousness to be free-will, but the truth-only, involuntary direction of our God-made consciousness, is the side of our consciousness that we have not balanced with. It's our built-in self-guidance system straight from our creator. This is not elusive and is really not rocket science. God is home. Will you see him?

Clearly God loves both free-will and truth based in how God formed our consciousness.

F1: Whoa God come back home. This crazy world is filled with liars and abusers. We need you now before we're too far gone. [I hope one day they finally see the truth. God we need you now.]

R1: Who unto you leave my youth, you loosh the DC lend eye-veneers, no poor heart.

F = 0:00:01 to 0:00:31, R = 0:00:18 to 0:00:26

- The reversal is commenting on misguided people seeing truth and needing God now in some way.

Interpretation:

- Those of you who abandon my youth and bring forth the energy of suffering on DC (likely Washington DC) connected to seeing falsely, or having false understandings is connected to being rich in wisdom and the source of emotions.
- So, this is likely expressing a wish to give rich wisdom/truth and/or source of emotion to those who are abandoning the youth, are aiding suffering on the people's power center, and seeing falsely. So, in a nutshell, it seems to wish that truth/wisdom connected to emotion be given to those who have been led astray.

- This one seems congruent to me except that it's a bit ironic that she wants God to come back while God does not appear to have gone anywhere but here as is evident in her truth speaking side. Lol.
- I think the take-away is God is home and we wish to see and feel God and not be misled or deceived. I think when we feel God is far away, embracing and seeing him and embracing the truth so we can make better choices, lets the light back in.
- Most people have both congruent and incongruent programming. The goal is to get as much of our programming to be congruent with our thoughts, words, and actions as possible, and stay in balance. Reverse Speech calls this surfing, like surfing through life, and how you are surfing determines the experience. Can you imagine this world if RS were common knowledge worldwide and everyone had full access to their own RS? Access to our truth-only side of our consciousness is our birthright. Please share it. Thank you! <3
